

7 in 10 Virginians Support Medical Aid in Dying

Medical aid in dying, an option for mentally capable, terminally ill adults to peacefully end unbearable suffering, is supported by a wide majority of Virginian voters regardless of political affiliation, religion, age, location, gender identity, community or identity.

AGE

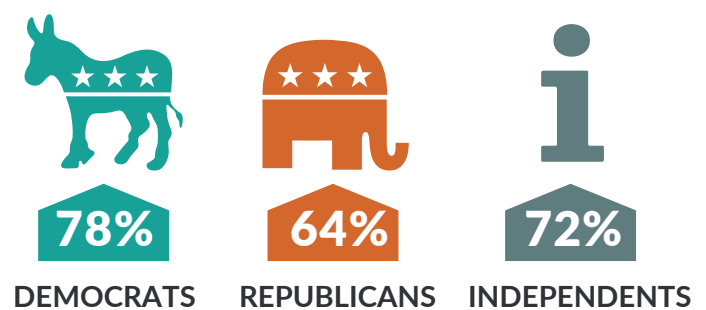

GENDER

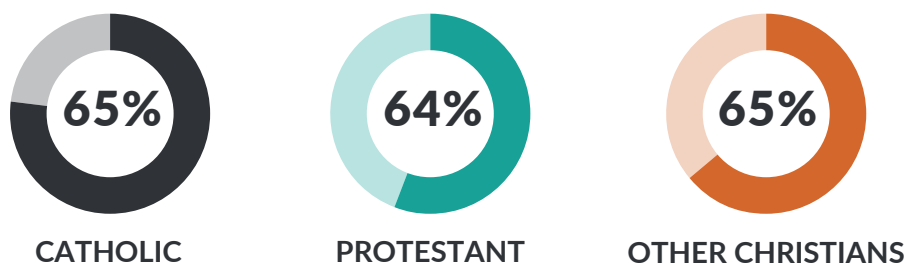

COMMUNITY & IDENTITY

POLITICAL AFFILIATION

RELIGION

Source: Untold Research conducted this online survey (n=1,467) between December 29, 2025 - January 5, 2026. To qualify, individuals must have voted in the November 2025 gubernatorial election in Virginia.