This position will primarily be responsible for:

- Providing oversight to C&C volunteers including managing volunteers to implement C&C's grassroots organizing activities within the region.
- Providing technical assistance and support to Action Teams throughout the region (such as: trainings on and sharing of C&C toolkits).
- Drafting effective advocacy alerts for activist activities and events.
- Coordinating C&C involvement in public/healthcare outreach events (such as: putting together volunteers for booths and presentations).
- Recruiting volunteers and leading volunteer training and educational talks to build broader support for the aid in dying movement; cultivating relationships with local community groups.
- Mobilizing individuals throughout the region to voice support for our legislative goals and full access to end-of-life choice for the following actions: letter writing campaigns, phone banking, canvassing, days of action, visibility events, legislative lobbying, public health committee hearing, etc.
- Directly supervises Action Teams and volunteers.

Preferred Qualifications (You will be a good fit):

Education and Experience:

- Bachelor degree highly desired in political science/public health/management or other related field – or equivalent education and/or experience in a similar position
- A minimum of 3 years of work experience or strong internships and political campaign experience

Skills:

- Experience with forms of social media, such as Facebook.
- Exceptional interpersonal, organizational and communication skills, including writing skills.
- Ability to earn the confidence of a wide range of internal and external constituents.
- Ability to demonstrate public speaking and training skills preferred.
- Ability to gracefully manage multiple projects and to meet multiple deadlines.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.

How to Apply:
